3. Rollover Fee – Waived.

4. Stamp Duty Reimbursement

Stamp duty reimbursement is subject to the fulfillment of the following criteria:

(i) Redemption from Other Financial Service Providers (FSPs)

50% reimbursement of stamp duty amount subject to redemption amount at least 50% of facility limit within 30 days of Letter of Offer date.

(ii) Trading (Purchases and Sales) of shares during Qualifying Period

Reimbursement amount	Gross brokerage generated amount
100% of the ad valorem stamp duty paid	Equal and more than 2% of the facility limit within the Qualifying Period
50% of the ad valorem stamp duty paid	Within 1% and less than 2% of the facility limit within the Qualifying Period
No reimbursement	Less than 1% of the facility limit within the Qualifying Period

Illustration:

Customer A and B applied and accepted the Letter of Offer within 14 days for the Facility of RM200,000; and paid stamp duty (0.5% of facility limit RM200,000) = RM200,000 x 0.5% = RM1,000 ("stamp duty paid")
Customer A	Customer B
Scenario 1: Redemption Amount RM110,000 > 50% of RM200,000, stamp duty reimbursement will be 50% of 0.5% x RM200,000 = RM500.	Scenario 3: Redemption Amount RM80,000 < 50% of RM200,000 stamp duty reimbursement - not eligible.
Scenario 2: If gross brokerage generated amount during Qualifying Period = RM5000 > 2% of RM200,000. Customer A is entitled for stamp duty reimbursement of 100% of Stamp Duty paid of RM1,000 BUT reimbursement amount is restricted to RM500 only as RM500 has been reimbursement earlier in Scenario 1 above.	Scenario 4: If gross brokerage generated during Qualifying Period = RM5,000 > 2% of RM200,000. Customer B is entitled for stamp duty reimbursement of 100% of Stamp Duty paid of RM1,000 = RM1,000. If gross brokerage generated during Qualifying Period = RM3,000 < 2% of RM200,000 but > 1% of RM200,000. Customer B is entitled for stamp duty reimbursement of 50% of Stamp Duty paid of RM1,000 = RM500. However, if Gross brokerage generated during Qualifying Period is RM1,600 < 1% of RM200,000, Customer B is not entitled to any reimbursement.

In the event where an eligible customer increases facility limit within the Qualifying Period, the customer is entitled to stamp duty reimbursement based on the total stamp duty paid (existing stamp duty paid + additional stamp duty paid) if the gross brokerage generated amount is achieved within the Qualifying Period.

Customer C applied and accepted the Letter of Offer within 14 days for a Facility of RM200,000; and paid Stamp Duty (0.5% of facility limit RM200,000) = $RM200,000 \times 0.5\% = RM1,000$ ("Stamp Duty paid"). Subsequently, Customer C increased the Facility from RM200,000 to RM300,000. The total stamp duty paid is RM1,500. Customer C will need to generate a minimum gross brokerage amount of RM3,000 (1% x RM300,000) to be entitled for 50% stamp duty reimbursement and a minimum gross brokerage amount of RM6,000 (2% x RM300,000) to be entitled for 100% stamp duty reimbursement during the Qualifying Period.

5. Qualifying Period

Qualifying Period is defined as 11 months period commencing from 17 June 2022 and ending on 16 May 2023.

6. Redemption Amount

Redemption Amount is defined as redemption of all or any Outstanding Balance in Margin Accounts of Customers held with other Participating Organisations or persons or entities approved or licensed to provide financing under any written law in Malaysia and the subsequent transfers of the Margin Accounts to the Participating Organisation.
